

Position Green recognized as a Representative Vendor shortlisted in the 2025 Gartner® Market Guide for ESG Reporting and Management Software

Malmö, Sweden, 15 July 2025: Position Green, a leading ESG Software, is proud to announce its inclusion in the 2025 Gartner Market Guide for ESG Reporting and Management Software. We believe that this recognition underscores Position Green's commitment to delivering relevant and innovative solutions that support organizations in achieving their sustainability goals, helping them transition through compliance to impact.

In our view, Position Green is recognized for demonstrating several differentiating capabilities, including AI-driven tools for automated data consolidation, verification and sustainability statement generation, as well as domain expertise and integration capabilities.

“We are proud to be listed in the Gartner Market Guide for ESG Reporting and Management Software,” says Daniel Gadd, Co-founder and CEO of Position Green. “Our software is designed to not only meet the current regulatory and stakeholder compliance demands of businesses but also to anticipate and adapt to evolving corporate sustainability needs. We believe that this recognition affirms our dedication to supporting organizations as they navigate the complex sustainability landscape by making sustainability data driven and actionable.”
